ESTABLISHED 1909

OF DIETERICH

Our Giving Mission

As a responsible corporate citizen who truly cares about the communities where we live and work, The First National Bank of Dieterich will contribute to the growth of our community through donations of time and or/money. Our corporate giving will be focused in the areas specifically designed to assist youth, improve education, aid community development and support of the arts.

While The First National Bank of Dieterich views charitable giving as a responsibility, regrettably, we are unable to accept or respond favorably to donation requests that do not align with our mission. First consideration for donation requests shall be given to those with established relationships in good standing with our financial institution.
