Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

The First National Bank of Dieterich

What we do

How does The First National Bank protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does The First National Bank collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- open an account or apply for a loan
- show gov't issued ID or make deposits/withdrawals
- make a wire transfer

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus and other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for non-affiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
